Mexican Brigands

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 12.-The Brownsville account of the raid on Los Almos causes some excitement. This decides the question as to the existence of an organized band in Mexico to invade Texas. Los Almos is about 100 miles from the Rio Grande. It has 304 stores and a E. FLANIGAN'S good many inhabitants. Mr McGovern, custom house inspector, returned recently from Edinburg, and says a party of raiders were in Hidalge county about five days ago. They crossed the Rio Grande between Edinburg and Red Gold barracks, nearly 100 miles below Guerrero. They were from Matamoras and other towns on the Rio Grande, and not from Guerrero. A few weeks ago, two herders, Celaye and Donache, were captured by a band of robbers. They tied the latter's hands behind him, with his feet under his horse's belly, and then turned the horse loose. After grazing around for twelve hours, the horse went to the ranche and the poor man was released. The marauders collected the cattle and drove them into Mexico. This occurred about 12 miles from Brownsville. Three days since, three armed Mexicans stopped a United States soldier in the road about thirty-one miles above here. They questioned him and let him go. A detachment of mounted men were sent from the camp at Los Rucios to look for the Mexicans, with what success is not
